

Ukeme Falade

Controller

Africare

Ukeme Falade joined Africare in 2006 as the Controller, responsible for financial activities management and budgeting. With more than 20 years of progressively responsible experience in non-profit financial management, Ms. Falade has been instrumental in leading organizations through start-up, turnaround and growth modes.

Among her previous positions, Ms. Falade served as the Senior Director of Finance and Accounting of The Points of Light Foundation, as the Director, Finance, at the American Association of Public Transportation, a Washington DC based Transportation Association that seeks to advance public transportation through advocacy, innovation and information sharing.

With her knowledge of information systems, Ms. Falade has been vital in Accounting System as well as Enterprise Resource Planning system implementations. She holds a Bachelor of Sciences Degree in Computer Information Systems and Accounting from Strayer University and a Certified Public Accountancy certification.